Note:

- The bidder is required to provide documentary evidence for each of the above criteria.
- The technical score will be allotted by StockHolding to each bidder against each section and will be considered final.
- Technical proposals will be evaluated based on the total marks obtained across all technical evaluation criteria. Only those bidders who achieve a minimum cumulative score of 60 marks in the technical evaluation will qualify for the commercial bid evaluation.

Commercial Bid Evaluation (Stage 3)

The Commercial offers of only those Bidders, who are short-listed after technical evaluation, would be opened.

Best Value Bid Determination and Final Evaluation (Stage 4)

A composite score shall be calculated for those bidders whose bids are found to be in order.

The weightage for the composite evaluation is as described below:
a. Technical – 60%
b. Commercial – 40%

For Quality and Cost based Evaluation (QCBS), the following formula will be used for evaluation of the bids

$$Bn = 0.6 * (Tn/Thigh * 100) + 0.4 * (Cmin/Cb * 100)$$

Where;
Bn = Overall score of bidder under consideration
Tn = Technical score for the bidder under consideration
Thigh = Highest Technical score achieved against criteria among all eligible bids
Cb = Evaluated Bid Cost (as calculated above) for the bidder under consideration Cmin = Lowest Evaluated Bid Cost (as calculated above) among the financial proposals under consideration.

Stock Holding Corporation of India Limited reserves the right to invoke the BG in the event of non-performance by the successful bidder.

Force Majeure

Neither the StockHolding nor the Bidder shall be responsible for any failure to fulfil any term or condition of the CONTRACT if and to the extent that fulfilment has been delayed or temporarily prevented by a Force Majeure occurrence, defined as "Force Majeure". For purposes of this clause, “Force Majeure” mean an event beyond the control of the Parties and which prevents a Party from complying with any of its obligations under this Contract, including but not limited to: acts of God not confined to the premises of the Party claiming the Force Majeure, flood, drought, lightning or fire, earthquakes, strike, lock-outs beyond its control, labour disturbance not caused at the instance of the Party claiming Force Majeure, acts of government or other competent authority, war, terrorist activities, military operations, riots, epidemics, civil commotions etc.

The Party seeking to rely on Force Majeure shall promptly, within 5 days, notify the other Party of the occurrence of a Force Majeure event as a condition precedent to the availability of this defence with particulars detailed in writing to the other Party and shall demonstrate that it has taken and is taking all reasonable measures to mitigate the events of Force Majeure. And, all Parties will endeavor to agree on an alternate mode of performance in order to ensure the continuity of service and implementation of the obligations of a party under the Contract and to minimize any adverse consequences of Force Majeure. Each PARTY shall bear its own cost in relation to the force majeure occurrence.

However, any failure or lapse on the part of the Bidder to mitigate the damage that may be caused due to the above-mentioned events or the failure to provide adequate disaster management/recovery or any failure in setting up a contingency mechanism would not constitute force Majeure, as set out above.

If the duration of delay exceeds ninety (90) consecutive or one hundred eighty (180) cumulative days, StockHolding and the Bidder shall hold consultations with each other in an endeavor to find a solution to the problem. Notwithstanding above, the decision of the StockHolding, shall be final and binding on the bidder.

Dispute Resolution

a. All disputes or differences arising between the parties as to interpretation, operation, or effect of any clause in this RFP, shall be endeavoured to be resolved amicably through dialogues and discussions. However, disputes that cannot be mutually resolved shall be referred to arbitration.
b. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted by a sole arbitrator to be appointed by both the parties on mutual consent. In the event of failure to reach consensus on an arbitrator, each party shall appoint an arbitrator and both the arbitrators shall appoint a third arbitrator as referee arbitrator before the commencement of arbitration proceedings.
c. The arbitration proceedings shall be governed by the provisions of The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The venue of arbitration shall be Mumbai and the proceedings shall be conducted in English. The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the Parties.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction:

Any dispute or difference arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. Any disputes shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts at Mumbai, Maharashtra.

Right to alter RFP

d. StockHolding reserves the right to alter the RFP terms and conditions at any time before submission of the bids.
e. StockHolding reserves the right to modify, amend, alter and/or cancel the entire RFP at any stage without assigning any reason whatsoever. We further understand and accept that StockHolding's decision in this regard will be final and binding on all bidders.

Integrity Pact

The Bidder will have to enter in to an Integrity Pact with StockHolding. The format (text) for the Integrity Pact is provided as Annexure-5. The successful Bidder will have to submit a signed and stamped copy of the Integrity Pact by the authorized signatory of the successful Bidder.

Sub-Contracting

The selected service provider/ vender shall not subcontract or permit anyone other than its personnel to perform any of the work, service or other performance required under this project.

Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA)

The successful bidder shall execute Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA) as per Annexure -8, which contains all the services and terms and conditions of the services to be extended as detailed herein.

All the expenses related to execution of the document such as the applicable stamp duty and registration charges if any shall be borne by the successful bidder.

Indemnify

The Bidder should hereby indemnify, protect and save StockHolding against all claims, losses, costs, damages, expenses, action suits and other proceedings, resulting from infringement of any patent, trademarks, copyrights etc. or such other statutory infringements in respect of all the equipment offered by the Bidder. Any publicity by Bidder in which name of StockHolding is used should be done only with the explicit permission of StockHolding.

Termination of contract for convenience

StockHolding reserves the right to terminate the contract, in whole or in part, at any time and for its convenience, during the contract period, by providing 90 days' prior written notice. The notice of termination shall specify that termination is for StockHolding's convenience, the extent to which performance of the bidder under the contract is terminated and the date upon which such termination becomes effective. The bidder shall be entitled to receive payment for the Services rendered (delivered) up to the effective date of termination.

Termination Clause

1. StockHolding reserves right to terminate the contract by giving 90 days prior written notice in advance against any of the following conditions –
    a. If penalty amount is equal to or more than 10% of total contract value; during the Termination notice period successful bidder must adhere to all the conditions mentioned in the 'Exit Management' clause.
    b. If at any point of time, the services of bidders are found to be non-satisfactory;
2. Notwithstanding the above, StockHolding may at any time terminate the Contract by giving Notice to the successful bidder if the successful bidder becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. In such event, termination will be without compensation to the successful bidder, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy that has accrued or will accrue thereafter to StockHolding.
3. Apart from above cases, StockHolding reserves the right to recover any dues payable by the successful bidder from any amount outstanding to the credit of the selected bidder, including the adjustment of pending bills and/or invoking the Performance Bank Guarantee under this contract.

Exit Management

a. Purpose: In the case of termination of the Contract, the Exit Management procedure should start 90 days before the expiry or termination of contract.
b. Plan: An Exit Management Plan, provided in writing by the Bidder to the StockHolding within 60 days of the acceptance of the Purchase Order/Contract, will outline the Bidder's support during the termination or expiration of the contract, along with the company's exit strategy. Following this, the exit plan must be reviewed and updated annually.
c. Bidder shall provide the Termination/Expiration Assistance regardless of the reason for termination or expiration.
d. Bidder shall fully and timely comply with the Exit Plan.
e. Bidder shall not make any changes to the Services under this Agreement and shall continue to provide all Services to comply with the Service Levels.
f. Confidential Information, Security and Data: The Bidder will promptly on the commencement of the exit management period supply to StockHolding the following:
    - Information relating to the current services rendered.
    - Documentation relating to Project's Intellectual Property Rights.
    - Project Data and Confidential Information.
    - All current and updated project data as is reasonably required for purposes of transitioning the services to its Replacement Bidder in a readily available format specified by StockHolding.

Options Order Clause

The Purchaser reserves the right to extend the contract period and/or increase the ordered quantum of goods/services up to 25 percent at any time till the completion date of the contract, by giving reasonable notice and reasonable extension in delivery period for increased quantum, even though the quantum ordered initially has been delivered in full before the completion period of contract.

Assignment

Either Party may, upon written approval of the other, assign its rights and obligations hereunder to: (i) its Parent Corporation (as defined below) or an Affiliate; and (ii) a third party entity in connection with the transfer of all or substantially all of the business and assets of that party to such entity. For purposes of this Agreement, a "Parent Corporation" shall mean a company or entity owning over 50% of a Party and an "Affiliate" shall mean a company directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, a Party. Except as provided above in this Section, either Party may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement to a third party only upon receiving the prior written consent of the other Party, which consent may be reasonably conditioned but will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Parties agree that no assignments will be made unless the assignee agrees to accept in full the responsibilities and obligations of the assigning Party.
